

Scholastic Books

BOOK FAIRS

Scholastic Books are ordered in advance by the school librarian or a designated person and then sold via the "School Book Fair". On-line registration gives web access to a Chairperson's Toolkit with a planning timeline, tools, tips, letters, posters, decor items and financial forms. Scholastic Dollars are the profits from the sale. Earn 40%-60% towards additional books & educational supplies in support of your Idaho Reads! Family Literacy Events or your school's Library. 1-800-233-1687

<http://www.scholastic.com/bookfairs/librarian/>

Check the website for Book Fair Workshops in or near Idaho.

<http://www.scholastic.com/bookfairs/events/workshop/>

WAREHOUSE SALES

Check the website for Warehouse Sales in or near Idaho. 1-800-233-1687

<http://www.scholastic.com/bookfairs/events/warehouse/>

RESOURCES

Request CATALOGS and BROCHURES:

Educational Materials or Scholastic Book Club catalogs. 1-800-246-2986

<http://www.scholastic.com/custsupport/catalogs.htm>

On-line Teacher & Parent Resources: Printables, Activities, Tips, Strategies, etc.

<http://teacher.scholastic.com/products/ect/>

GRANTS

A small number of these grants are awarded and the qualifications are limiting.

<http://www.scholastic.com/aboutscholastic/communitybookgrants.htm>

SUMMER READING

Read For The World Record: An internet based reading challenge from May 1 - August 31. Students sign up and are able to log reading time as well as access games, activities and book lists. Resources for parents, librarians and teachers are on the website. Schools and classrooms can participate and receive additional resources.

<http://www.scholastic.com/bookfairs/record/>

BOOK CLUBS

Books may be ordered via the classroom teacher for individual reading or book clubs. Teachers receive a monthly catalog, age appropriate to the grade level. The catalog contains book descriptions and order forms. Teachers submit the group order and the books arrive in the classroom for distribution. Scholastic Dollars benefit the classroom with books or other educational materials chosen by the teacher.

1-800-724-6527 #1

<http://teacher.scholastic.com/clubs/>

CONTESTS

Check the website for Contest information.

<http://www.scholastic.com/bookfairs/contest/>

National Office: 1-800-724-6527

Western US Office: 1-800-342-5331

Email: custserv@scholastic.com

<http://www2.scholastic.com/browse/index.jsp?c=y>